
Contents

1	Overview of the Insurance Industry	1	4	Technology's Effects on Marketing and Basic Policy Processing	101
	Insurance and Information	2		Marketing and the Insurance Company	102
	Structure of the Property and Liability Insurance Industry	5		The Basic Policy Processing System	117
	Insurance Organizations and Their Functions	18		Issues in All-Lines Processing	126
	Corporate Structures	31		Summary	130
	Summary	32
2	Technology and Insurance Information	35	5	Technology's Use in Underwriting and Claims	133
	Information Needs of the Organization	36		Underwriting	133
	Information Needs at the Operational Level	38		Claims	150
	Information Needs at the Managerial Level	50		Use of Imaging in Underwriting and Claims	158
	Information Needs at the Strategic Level	55		Summary	160
	The Ongoing Evolution of Company Information Technology Systems	58	6	The Marketing of Insurance Over the Internet (NAIC Study)	163
	Summary	68		Executive Summary	167
3	Issues in Insurance Industry Use of Technology	71		I. NAIC Charge	169
	Information Technology as Part of Company Strategy	71		II. Internet Overview	171
	Centralized Versus Decentralized Information Processing	82		III. Sales and Service of Insurance Over the Internet	173
	Evaluation of System Projects	88		IV. Elements of an Insurance Transaction	176
	Summary	98		V. Advantages and Disadvantages of Insurance Sales and Service Over the Internet	181
				VI. Regulatory Issues	188

VII. Security and Privacy
Issues	195
VIII. Conclusions and Recommendations	197
Appendix A: Licensing	203
Appendix B: Licensable and Non-Licensable Clerical Activities	207
Appendix C: Survey Responses	213
Appendix D: Citations of Digital Signature Statutes	219
Appendix E: Glossary of Internet Terms	227
7 Agency Management Systems; Agency/ Company Interface	231
Agency Management Systems	232
Objectives of Agency Management Systems	235
Benefits of Agency Management Systems	248
Agency/Company Interface	249
Achieving Agreement Between Agency and Company Databases	255
Standards for Agency/ Company Interface	260
Summary	269
8 Industry-Level Information Requirements	271
Insurance Regulation and Information Requirements	272
Statistical Reporting	277
Statistical Organizations	283
Other Organizations That Affect Insurance
Information Technology	285
Summary	292
		9 Needs Analysis	295
		Types of Projects	296
		Project Issues	298
		Detailed Needs Analysis	306
		Additional Planning	320
		Summary	324
		10 Managing a System and Its Growth	327
		Managing System Performance	327
		Forces That Influence System Growth	332
		Evaluating System Effectiveness	334
		Improving System Effectiveness	338
		Monitoring System Growth	340
		Replacement Decisions	342
		Users' Groups	346
		Summary	347
		11 Information Security	349
		Information Security Problems	350
		Providing Information Security	358
		Controlling Information Security	365
		Disaster and Recovery Procedures	373
		Insuring Information Technology Exposures	376
		Summary	385
		Index	387