
Contents

1	Forces That Define Personal Insurance Products	1-1	4	Developing Personal Insurance Products	4-1
	Personal Insurers' Goals	1-4		Identifying Customer Needs	4-3
	Customers' Expectations for Personal Insurance	1-11		Identifying the Need for Changes in Existing Products	4-7
	Insurers' Difficulties in Meeting Customer Expectations	1-15		Determining the Reasons for Changes in Portfolios	4-11
	Social Issues, Legislation, Regulation, and Judicial Decisions	1-21		Making Corrective Changes	4-17
	Reinsurance in Personal Lines	1-25		Determining Costs and Benefits of New Products and Product Changes	4-20
	Case Study: Forces Affecting Personal Insurance Products	1-26		Writing Product Proposals	4-23
	Summary	1-31		Summary	4-26
2	The Personal Insurance Market	2-1	5	Underwriting Profitability for Personal Insurance	5-1
	Characteristics of the Personal Insurance Market	2-3		Components of Underwriting Profit/Loss	5-3
	Personal Lines Underwriting Cycles	2-5		Measuring Underwriting Profit	5-5
	Stages in Market Development	2-9		Establishing Goals for Underwriting Profitability	5-11
	Personal Insurance Market Segmentation	2-12		Improving Underwriting Profitability	5-21
	Technology	2-16		Improving Profitability—Case Study	5-31
	Strategic Alliances in the Personal Insurance Market	2-18		Summary	5-33
	Fraud in the Personal Insurance Market	2-19	6	Pricing Personal Insurance Products	6-1
	Summary	2-29		Pricing Components	6-3
3	Competing in The Personal Insurance Market	3-1		Analyzing Loss Data and Forecasting Trends	6-11
	The Competitive Market	3-3		Methods of Determining Rate Levels	6-16
	Developing Competitive Strategies	3-5		Ratemaking Methods	6-19
	Product Features, Price, and Service	3-10		Investment Income in Ratemaking	6-21
	Improving Retention and Persistency	3-21		Pricing New Insurance Products	6-22
	Summary	3-25		Regulatory Objectives in Rate Evaluation	6-25
				Social Objectives in Rate Evaluation	6-28
				ABC Insurance Case Study	6-31
				Summary	6-36

7	Reunderwriting Personal Insurance Portfolios	7-1	8	Gaining Efficiencies in Personal Insurance Operations	8-1
	The Purpose of Portfolio Reunderwriting	7-3		Personal Insurance Policy Processing Work Flow	8-3
	The Steps in the Reunderwriting Process	7-5		Work Flow Case Study	8-12
	Who Performs Portfolio Reunderwriting and When?	7-20		The Effect of Catastrophes on Personal Lines Insurance	8-18
	Improving Control and Decision Making	7-26		Personal Insurers' Responses to Catastrophes	8-20
	Summary	7-28		Insurance Industry Response to Catastrophes	8-23
				Summary	8-24
				Glossary	1
				Appendix	29
				Index	33

Contents

1	Responding to Changing Customer Needs	1-1
	Responding to Customer Expectations	1-4
	Consolidating Insurance Purchases	1-8
	Providing Coverage for High-Risk and Special Exposures	1-18
	Products That Respond to Other Changing Customer Needs	1-23
	Insurance Outside the United States	1-37
	Increasing Social Pressure To Control Insurance Costs	1-50
	Other Insurer Responses to Controlling Insurance Costs	1-53
	Summary	1-55
2	Responding to Social and Regulatory Issues of Personal Insurance	2-1
	Price Regulation	2-4
	Cost Distribution	2-9
	Rate-Filing Processes and Expenses	2-13
	Discrimination in Rating	2-18
	State Differences in Insurance Regulation	2-22
	No-fault Automobile Liability	2-27
	Distributing the Cost of Insurance	2-32
	Standard Versus Nonstandard Markets	2-35
	Pay-at-the-Pump	2-37
	Homeowners Insurance	2-42
	Customer Needs	2-42
	Summary	2-48
			3	Responding to Current Issues
				3-1
				Reporting Biases
				3-4
				Long-Term Insurance Issues
				3-6
				Territorial Rating
				3-27
				Unfair Discrimination in Rating
				3-31
				Consumer Groups and Access to Rating Information
				3-32
				Tort Reform
				3-34
				Distributing the Cost of Joint Underwriting Associations
				3-43
				Legislation and JUAs
				3-46
				Creating a Catastrophe Fund
				3-48
				Summary
				3-54
				Bibliography
				Index